

Mapping & Monitoring in Epilepsy Surgery

(Focus: Epilepsy Surgery)

When: 7 December 2026, 15:30 until approx. 19:15 CET

Where: online via Zoom (Login information will be sent by the office after registration is complete.)

Moderation: Andrea Szelényi, Kathleen Seidel, Carolin Weiss Lucas

Part 1 Webinar | 15:30–17:20

(free of charge, in English)

15:30–16:00 Epilepsy surgery – Why, who and how?

Part 1: Surgical strategies and functional-anatomical pitfalls
Daniel Detlev (Erlangen, DE)

Part 2: Image-guided surgery for epilepsy
Karl Rössler (Wien, AT)

- Panel discussion I -

16:05–16:20 Presurgical non-invasive evaluation

Stefan Rampp (Erlangen, DE)

- Panel discussion II -

16:25–16:55 Preoperative invasive EEG

16:25–16:40 ...for focus localisation
Jörg Wellmer (Bochum, DE)

16:40–16:50 ...to delineate the functional boundaries – a case report
Davide Giampiccolo (London, UK)

- Panel discussion III -

16:55–17:10 Intraoperative ECoG

Sara Parreira (Lisbon, PT)

- Panel discussion IV -

17:15–17:20 Closing remarks and end of the public webinar section

Part 2 Webtutorial:

Interactive case discussions in small groups | 17:30–19:15

(total subject to charge and registration, in German, max. 18 attendees total | groups of max. 6 attendees):

Independent development of a case scenario in group discussion (research permitted), supervised by lecturers (in a tutoring role)